

Nurse Practitioner Healthcare Foundation

The Nurse Practitioner Healthcare Foundation has partnered with DERM for Primary Care, a digital learning platform developed for primary care providers where you'll learn to identify, diagnose and treat common skin problems that routinely present in your clinical practice. Click on the links below to learn more about this outstanding educational opportunity. Use the code NPHF18 to receive a special discount on your subscription.

DERM for Primary Care

www.DermForPrimaryCare.com
Save 10% on your subscription.

Use code: NPHF18

Purchase Subscription

Earn up to 23 Continuing Education Credit Hours!

Derm for Primary Care® (DFPC) is a digital learning platform developed for primary care providers that teaches how to identify, diagnose and treat common skin problems that routinely present to a primary care practice.

Click to Explore DFPC

GAIN A COMPETITIVE EDGE:

Better your job placement outcome by learning to successfully identify, diagnose, treat, and manage skin disorders.

Learn More

LEARN PROCEDURES:

We provide real-life clinical examples to teach how to develop treatment plans and adjust to progressing conditions.

Try Demo

VISUAL LEARNING:

Our patented platform includes HD procedure and theory videos and a data bank of over 5,000 HD images.

View Courses

3340 Peachtree Road NE, Suite 1010 30326 Atlanta US